

CIHR CAFÉ SCIENTIFIQUE PRESENTS

Better Treatment for Parkinson's: Is early diagnosis the key?

Thursday, June 25, 2015
6:30 pm – 8:30 pm
Saint Antonios Church Hall
6141 Chebucto Road
Halifax, NS
(Accessible entrance in back)

RSVP: Kim.Good@dal.ca
902-473-4250
predictparkinsons.com

Parkinson's is a neurodegenerative disorder that currently has limited treatment options. Research is unclear whether intervening and treating early can lead to better outcomes.

Join us for a discussion about new approaches to identifying people who are destined to develop Parkinson's and hear about treatment options for this complex and debilitating condition.

Experts:

John Fisk, PhD
Clinical Neuropsychologist
Nova Scotia Health Authority
Dalhousie University

Roger McKelvey, MD
Neurologist, FRCPC
Nova Scotia Health Authority

Harry Robertson, PhD
Neuropharmacologist
Professor Emeritus
Dalhousie University

Moderator:

Kimberley Good, PhD
Clinical Neuropsychologist
Nova Scotia Health Authority
Dalhousie University